

Landscape (from Between the West Wind and Yellow Clay folio)
by Marcus Vergette

Recalibration

An exhibition of artworks by Marcus Vergette

Exeter Custom House, Exeter Quay

28 August - 26 September 2021

Free admission

The exhibition launches a pilot artistic programme in Exeter's heritage Custom House presented by Honeyscribe.

honeyscribe.org/custom-house

HONEYSCRIBE

Special Events

Saturday 11 September 10am-5pm: Under the microscope
Robert Hooke's Micrographia will be on temporary display by kind permission of the Dean and Chapter, Exeter Cathedral. Artist Marcus Vergette will be joined by Dr Felicity Henderson and ecologist Rob Wolton to discuss the importance of looking at different scales. Master printers Simon Marsh and Graham Bignell will be in residence demonstrating letterpress printing techniques.

Wednesday 15 September: Late opening until 10pm
Marcus Vergette will be joined by poet and musician Anthony Joseph to play the Stone Carillon, following their performance in the Transit Shed as part of the Quay Words programme.

Friday 24 September: Late opening until 10pm
With musical soundscape from DJ Dr John Sealey and moth-focussed activity with Art & Energy.

Saturday 25 September: Moths to a Flame
Art & Energy's temporary moth installation and moth-focussed making activity continues throughout the day.

Generously supported by

